PUBLIC HEARING

The Clarke County Planning Commission will consider recommending to the Board of Supervisors:

- 1. the adoption of the 2007 Clarke County Comprehensive Plan, an updated version of the 2001 Clarke County Comprehensive Plan, and
- 2. the adoption of the 2007 Historic Resources Plan, a component of the Comprehensive Plan and an updated version of the 2001 Historic Resources Plan.

Commissioner Ohrstrom, as Chairman of the Comprehensive Plan Committee, stated that it has been an honor to Chair the Comprehensive Plan Committee. He stated that the Committee has not made a lot of changes and changes that were made are strictly in the context of modernization and wording. He said most of the work was done to strengthen our environmental protection policies. He thanked everyone involved in this process.

Chair McKay opened the public hearing for citizen comments.

Bud Nagelvoort, Clarke County resident, was present and suggested wording changes to several of the Objective Numbers and Policies, which the Commission accepted. A specific list of these changes is in the Comprehensive Plan file in the Planning Offices.

There being no further discussion, the meeting was adjourned at 8:15 p.m.
